

A Cup of Good Coffee

To get a really good cup of coffee you'll have to start back of the actual making; you'll have to look to the roasting and the grinding. In ARBUCKLES' you have a coffee that's scientifically roasted, and delivered to you with all the pores of the berry hermetically sealed. You're sure of a good cup of coffee because all the coffee flavor and aroma are kept intact until you want it. The fame of ARBUCKLES' induced other coffee packers to put out imitations of it. These imitations cost the grocer (and you) a cent a pound less than ARBUCKLES'. But don't be tempted to buy a package of some other coffee when you can get for it is actually less expensive than the cheap kind; goes further—besides being better flavored, more satisfying.

Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee

You will find a list of useful articles in each package of Arbuckles' Coffee. A definite part of one of these articles becomes yours when you buy the coffee. The one you select from the list will be sent you on condition that you send to our Notion Department a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers.

Marriage in High Life.

Hardscrabble, 2, 1, 1901.—To the JIMPLECUTE—The grandest social event of the 20th century was pulled through last night at the hospitable home of La'kin Ransom, when his daughter Mary and — Jones (dout know whether it was Jehue Jones or Jones that paid the freight) were made one and inseparable suffice it to say it was a swell affair. This write up was obtained by proxy through Simon son of Rex, alias Simon Willis who as an eye witness, was one of the boys (coons), says when the gong rang out ready there was a rush for places, such as will not be witnessed again 'till McKinley's 2nd inauguration. The bride's trousseau was spotless white as a Russian snow blizzard, while the groom's sky-scraper collar had to be lowered sharply to allow — to stand erect under the —. The bride was given — by her father, that old time color —, rather, in a very dignified but modest manner. The groom while being hustled into line chafed thusly:

I wish I was a bumble bee,
Sailing through the air.
I'd pin Miss Mary to my side
Then touch her if you dare.

While the knot was being tied, Simon son of Rex, and Ned Mayo, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march on the new organ, then came the congratulations followed by the bountiful repast, such as the mother-in-law Frank alone can superintend and get up. The happy-fied folks took the flyer for the island of San-guan to spend the honeymoon.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured. I have not

In Memoriam.

On January 16th death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cuffs, and fastened its fangs upon their infant daughter, Vonnice Lee and claimed it as its prize. Vonnice was born April 11th, 1900, died January 16th, 1901. Only living nine months and 5 days to cheer and bless the home of her loving mother and father.

While in the tender bud of youth the precious little babe was struck down with a severe case of pneumonia, for several days her little physical body stood firm and unyielding, but alas, alas! it soon gave way to a spiritual and never dying soul. Loving hands did all they could to give little Vonnice Lee ease and comfort, but their strength was limited. Then God in his infinite mercy called her to his bosom there to sing with the redeemed through endless eternity.

Or ever the silver cord be loosed,
Or the golden bowl be broken,
Or the pitcher be broken at the fountain,
Or the wheel be broken at the cistern,
Then shall the dust return to the earth,
And the spirit shall return to God Who gave it.

Cheer up dear mother and father for your "babe" is not dead but she has gone asleep in Jesus. She has gone home to die no more. With beautiful and beckoning hands she stands at the golden gate, there waiting and watching for the coming of her mother so tender and true. See, oh! see, baby's voice calling, yes, calling father to thee so dear.

"Desire not to live long
But to live well, how long we live
Not years but actions tell."

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health.
